

Our new Limit-Less™ line of belts, harnesses and straps with magnetic self-engaging buckles makes it easier for users to self-release thereby staying on the right side of the anti-restraint requirements while providing safety, stability and support.

LIMITLESS

Safety & Security Without Restraint

Pull to release uses a colored Key ring added to the buckle, all the user needs to be able to do to release the belt or harness is to pull ring at around 90° from the body, allowing the buckle to release.

Proximity engagement makes closing the buckle(s) easy, even for those with limited dexterity. Just getting the 2 sides near each other will allow reclosing.
